HUSKY is a photographic volume dedicated to the proposition that the male nude is an object worthy of respect because it is of God and is made by God. The artist, with his love for the form of man, and his desire to capture it in his own style in the various mediums of photography, painting, sculpture and design, is often unable to find or afford suitable live models. It is primarily for this purpose that HUSKY presents the most attractive male nude studies in order to further enrich the artist, and therefore the level of cultural aspiration and attainment. It is not and never will be HUSKYS' intention to present materials which are erotic or intended to distort the artistic depiction of the male nude for sexual exploition. Granted, definitions of "erotic" and "obscene" vary in direct proportion to he who dares to presume such a definition be applied universally and unequivocally. HUSKY will publish only those photographic studies which declare the male form a thing of divine beauty. Too often, nudity is a source of embarrassment or prurient interest, rather than what it is: the way we were sent into this world. HUSKY believes that that which is natural and made by God is worthy of depiction in the arts and in photo-journalism. This is our fundamental assumption and HUSKY is dedicated entirely to it.

NUDIST TRAINING CANNOT WAIT

BY EARL WELLS

Today's teenager in our American society of 1968 finds that the Great Society does not provide him with the kind of naturist benefits his young body so desperately needs.

He discovers that he cannot join a nudist camp because there is a dire shortage of them!

He has his name on a waiting list to join a naturist retreat but while he waits, his young teenage body becomes older and he has lost the chance to grow up as a nudist teen!

This injustice to our youth is not one we should expect to find within the Democratic and Republican party platforms in the 1968 Presidential Conventions.

However, there should be a way that nudist-minded youths could lobby for their rights.

Unfortunately, there is practically no way that young nudists deprived of the gymnosophic life can rally the public and politicians to correct the injustice against them.

There is one vital step that all parents can take to insure that their young son can live the life of the nudist: they can encourage and permit the aspiring boy to indulge in the healthy disrobing we know as nudism . . . in his own home!

If we don't teach our youth that they should learn to love and respect their unclothed bodies, then we run the risk of instilling in them—however unconsciously—the lie that the human body is something to be ashamed of and covered up.

If the parents give their young children the wise example of naturist living within the setting of the American home, there will be a stronger and more emotionally healthy America.

Many will object to the raising of young men and women in homes where clothes will be discarded. To these prudist persons, the human body is already an evil thing.

To a genuine nudist and to any healthy American, there never has been any valid reason, on any grounds, for denying the complete acceptability of the nudist way of life.

Until we have more acceptance of the organized movement in America, in which we have nudist camps run by genuine naturists, the idea of raising our youth in homes where nudism is permitted will be an idea for only the avant-garde but intelligent parents.

It is not surprising that Americans are coming to join nudist camps more than ever before. After all, 1968 is the year of the greatest enlightment in terms of the free and honest discussion of the human body and sexual subjects.

Today's youth have the wonderful opportunity to live lives relatively free of sexual repression, fear and the dangerous emotional disorders which so often derive from a home life of Puritanical teachings and discipline.

The wisest parents will not wait for the naturist movement to expand so that their sons and daughters may know the life of nature. They are going to organize now, instead of waiting for some vague time in the future.

After all, their children are growing up now; if the parents wait for a camp to open up, their children will have already formed.

The chance to help the youths of this country to grow up in homes where sex and the human body is respected and venerated is an opportunity that comes only a few times to each parent within a lifetime.

We must teach our youth that the superficial values of a society based on the unhealthy rejection of the nude body are values that spread throughout society to infect every area of life with mental disease and corruption.

It would be a blessing if every parent would give his child the precious opportunity to grow up as nudists within their own home.

The parents of the youth featured in this magazine had the foresight to allow their sons to live the healthy life of the nudist that were denied them within their own communities.

The time to train young nudists for a life of glowing vitality in mind, spirit, and body is NOW, not in the future.

SPECIAL FICTION LIST 3

THE GAUDY IMAGE $1.75

This is an epic story of prisons, hustlers, whores, queers, and leers. An older prisoner's itch to deflower a young boy recently imprisoned forms the social thrust of this study of the world's depraved and incarcerated.

COSIMO'S WIFE $1.25

Here is a most crafty mixture of Tom Jones-type bawdy seductions and skillful writing. A priceless quote: "Ah, dearie, nothing can equal the peace of mind one gets around a man with a decent cock." The book goes on to try and prove this contention.

THE DOUBLE-BELLIED COMPANION $1.25

"'My kingdom for a cock!' he thought. 'For a big, handsome cock that WORKS!'" The story is of a world-renowned sportsman-hunter whose impotence is wittily contrasted with the prodigious studs who cross his path doing things he can only dream about.

MY MOTHER TAUGHT ME $1.25

The family that sleeps together stays together, according to this strange work about a young boy whose overworked posterior and forefront are used by his adopted father, mother and sister, all of whom simply cannot get enough of him!

A BEDSIDE ODYSSEY $1.25

This underground classic is reputedly written by the great Homer. It contains the strongest and most explicit language we can imagine the mind of man creating. Ulysses' monumental phallus and what he does with it surely lead us to consider him well-hung for history.

PLAY THIS LOVE WITH ME $1.25

The sex acts in this book read the way that Mexican postcard pornography looks. Here is the no-holes or holds-barred school of literature. Willy is the central character and it is doubtful if anyone ever so loved the male sex organ or tried to do more with it and to it than Willy.
